Following in Celtic Footsteps

A Pilgrimage to Northern Britain

In 563, an Irish Christian called Columba founded a monastery on the island of Iona, and lit a spark that flamed into one of the brightest and most significant periods of Christian history in Britain – that of the Celtic church. From Iona, the Celtic mission spread across Scotland and northern England, and in 635 another island monastery was founded by Aidan at Lindisfarne. Both of these monasteries played a major part in the re-evangelization of northern Britain, and have become revered places of pilgrimage, receiving countless visitors year by year, who seek to honor the legacy of these missionary saints.

We are delighted to invite you to join us in a pilgrimage which will explore the history and geography of the Celtic mission in Britain. Starting on Iona, we will travel through Scotland to Lindisfarne, and south to the cathedral city of Durham. As we journey we will discover the stories of Columba and Aidan, Cuthbert, Wilfrid, Hild and Bede, and visit some of the places where they lived and worked. We will learn what made the Celtic approach to Christianity both so distinctive and so popular, and we will learn of its ending at the Synod of Whitby in 664, when it was decided that the whole country should follow the more universal Roman practices of the Christian faith.

During our time together, we will enjoy times of silence, times of prayer and worship, and times of laughter, sight-seeing, eating and drinking, and forging new friendships. We hope you can join us.

Dominic and Paul

PLEASE BOOK EARLY TO AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT

Accommodation on Iona is strictly limited, and the hotel at which we will stay is not large. Places on this pilgrimage are available on a 'first come, first served' basis, and you are encouraged to mail your booking form and deposit no later than 22nd December 2019 and your final payment is due before the 25th April 2020.

OUR ITINERARY

Day 1, Wednesday 15th July

We meet in the afternoon at Chicago's O'Hare airport for our flight to London. Dinner and breakfast will be served on board.

Day 2, Thursday 16th July

Landing in London in the early morning, we clear UK immigration and connect onwards for our flight to Glasgow. On landing, we will drive to the city of Oban on the west coast of mainland Scotland, and after a short break for lunch (not included in the tour price), we catch the ferry to the isle of Mull, continue across the island, and finally come to the passenger ferry that will take us on to Iona. We hope to arrive in time to unpack and freshen up before dinner.

Day 3 - 5, Friday 17th - Sunday 19th July

We will enjoy three quiet days of retreat, prayer and exploration as we discover something of the history and beauty of this very special island that saw the beginning of the Celtic mission in Britain so many centuries ago. Our time will include worship, silence and the chance to take part in an walking pilgrimage around the island.

Iona

The prestige of Iona began in AD 563 when the Celtic bishop Columba and his twelve companions sailed from Ireland to found a monastery here and used it as a base from which to convert the Picts to Christianity. The monastery was attacked and burned six times by Vikings and was eventually abandoned as the monks withdrew to the safety of monasteries such as Kells in Ireland.

Iona was occupied again in 1203 as a Benedictine monastery, but it fell into ruin after the dissolution of the monasteries by Henry VIII in the 1530s .

The oldest surviving building is St Oran's chapel (c. 1080), and the ornately carved St Martin's Cross (10th century) stands outside the abbey.

Today Iona is a sacred place visited by thousands of pilgrims every year.

Day 6, Monday 20th July

We leave Iona after breakfast, and after our two ferry journeys, we will head to Scotland's capital city, Edinburgh, where we will spend two nights. Our hotel is located in the heart of downtown Edinburgh, a very short walk from the famous Princes Street, so we will enjoy an excellent location for our time here.

Day 7, Tuesday 21st July

This morning we will explore the royal Palace of Holyrood House, the official residence of the British monarch in Scotland. We will spend two hours here discovering its history and enjoying some of its treasures, after which the rest of the day will be free for people to explore Edinburgh as they wish.

Day 8, Wednesday 22nd July

This morning we will visit St Mary's Episcopal Cathedral and learn something of its ministry in downtown Edinburgh, before heading onwards to continue our exploration of the history of the Celtic church, by visiting the ruins of Melrose Abbey in the Scottish Borders. From here we continue towards the east coast, to spend one night at our hotel just outside Berwick.

Day 9, Thursday 23rd July

After breakfast we will make our way to the Holy Island of Lindisfarne, where we will spend the morning and early afternoon, leaving at around 3pm to make our way south to the magnificent cathedral city of Durham, which will be our home for the final four nights of our pilgrimage.

Day 10, Friday 24th July

Today we will learn of the end of the Celtic era of Christianity in Britain, as we visit Whitby, and learn of the Synod which took place there in 664. We will visit the ruins of the medieval abbey, set dramatically on cliffs overlooking the town, and also learn something of the ministry of the church in Whitby today. After the opportunity to have a classic British fish-and-chip lunch, we will visit the stunning medieval abbey ruins at Rievaulx, before returning to Durham in time for dinner.

Day 11, Saturday 25th July

This morning we will explore Durham Cathedral, with a guided tour of this extraordinary building which dominates the city. Built as the final resting place of St Cuthbert, the most beloved of the Northumbrian saints, we will celebrate a final pilgrim Eucharist here. Late morning we will drive west to the market town of Hexham, to enjoy some time in its abbey church (now the working Episcopal parish for the town), and learn of the history of St Wilfrid.

Day 12, Sunday 26th July

This morning we will join the local community at worship in Durham Cathedral. The rest of the day will be free, for last-minute shopping, wandering around Durham's beautiful river banks, and attending Choral Evensong for those who wish. In the evening we will have a farewell dinner to mark the end of our pilgrimage

Day 13, Monday 27th July

After breakfast we drive the short distance to Newcastle Airport for our flight to London, where we connect onwards for our international flight back to the USA, arriving in the early evening.

Please note this complex touring programme may be subject to minor local amendments

While we strive to operate all tours as advertised, we reserve the right to modify or cancel any flight, schedule, accommodation or other details of your trip at any time and without notice except as provided in this section. Most changes are minor, but where they are significant, we will inform you of an existing changes when you book, or if you have already booked, prior to your departure provided that we have sufficient time to do so. You then have the following choices:

- a. Accept the changed arrangements as notified to you,
- b. Purchase another available tour from us, or

TRIP PRICE ADJUSTMENTS

The prices quoted for these tours are based on known costs and exchange rates when tours are planned. Even in such cases, we will absorb an amount equivalent to 2% of the tour price (excluding insurance premiums and any amendment charges). Only amounts in excess of this 2% will be surcharged. If this means paying more than 10% of the tour price, you will be entitled to cancel the tour with a full refund of all monies paid. Should you decide to cancel because of this, you must do so within 14 days from the issue date printed on the invoice that contains the surcharge, otherwise your cancellation will be subject to our cancellation policy and fees.

Since we have to absorb increased costs equivalent to 2% of the tour price, there will be no reduction in the price of the tour in the event of a favorable variation in costs or exchange rates. Prices will not be increased within 14 days of departure.

Failure to do so while you are on the tour will extinguish or reduce your ability to claim any compensation from Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC, in the event that prompt reporting would have allowed us to fully or partially resolve the complaint at that time. Further, if you attempt to address the issue on your own without using this notice procedure, you assume responsibility for any added costs you may incur and forfeit any potential refunds. If you are not satisfied after using this notice procedure, you must submit your complaint in writing to us within 30 days of the tour's end date.
