As a pilgrim, journeying to the places our Lord once walked, taught, and healed, helps us to connect Scripture with the places and events they describe, offering us a chance to feel the words and stories come to life in a very real way. This was definitely true for me on my first visit to the Holy Land, and I know it can be true for you. I am excited about returning and privileged to be leading this trip to explore Galilee, Bethlehem, Jerusalem, and more.

This is not simply a sightseeing excursion. A pilgrimage offers a special, and spiritual, opportunity to experience a strengthening of our awareness of the Holy Spirit in our lives, and our relationship with the Lord, as we visit and worship in the places where the ministry of Jesus took place. Such an experience can be life changing. The connections we make to the places we visit, and the people we meet, will give us a fresh insight into the faith we profess and help us to see more clearly our calling as disciples in the modern world.

While we will travel between sites in the comfort of an air-conditioned bus, our guide will lead us along a few long and occasionally demanding pathways; a good set of walking shoes is a must. I invite you to join us as we step out in faith on this amazing journey seeking the grace and love of God revealed along the way connecting in faith to the places we visit and those we journey alongside.

Itinerary

DAY 1: MONDAY, MAY 2

We meet this morning at Eppley Field Airport in Omaha to begin our journey to the Holy Land, flying to Newark via Chicago, where we board our late afternoon flight to Israel. Dinner will be served on board.

DAY 2: TUESDAY, MAY 3

We land in Tel Aviv late morning where we will be met on arrival and driven north to the Galilee breaking for lunch en route. After lunch we drive to the summit of Mount Tabor, believed by many to be the site of the Transfiguration. Finally we continue to our lakeside guest house and check in. This will be our home for the next three nights. Dinner and overnight stay by the Sea of Galilee.

DAY 3: WEDNESDAY, MAY 4

After breakfast we drive to Nazareth, the town where Jesus grew up to visit the Basilica of the Annunciation, the traditional site of Mary's Well and the Synagogue Church. We then continue to the village of Cana, the site of Jesus' first sign according to St John before breaking for lunch. In the afternoon we will visit another recently excavated site, Sepphoris, biblical Zippori, believed to be the birthplace of Mary and it is quite possible that Joseph met Mary whilst working here. Sepphoris was a major Roman and Byzantine city with paved colonnaded streets, grand villas, synagogues and churches. We will return to our guest house in time to relax before dinner.

DAY 4: THURSDAY, MAY 5

Our day will be spent by the Sea of Galilee visiting the sites associated with Jesus' ministry of miracles and teaching set around the lake. We will have a guided tour of the excavated first century synagogue at Magdala. We will also visit the Mount of Beatitudes, the ruins of Capernaum, the Church of the Multiplication of the Loaves and Fishes, and the Church of Peter's Primacy. We will also have the chance to experience our own boat ride on the lake, as well as seeing the First Century fishing boat discovered towards the end of the last century.

DAY 5: FRIDAY, MAY 6

After an early breakfast we bid farewell to the Sea of Galilee and journey south. We will drive through the heart of the West Bank to the city of Nablus. Here we will visit the ancient holy site of Jacob's Well, where the Fourth Gospel records Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan Woman. We hope to meet the Rector of St Phillip's Episcopal Church and visit the Episcopal hospital in the city. After lunch with members of the parish we leave Nablus and drive down to the Jordan River, near to the place where it is believed Jesus was baptized by John. After reaffirming our Baptismal Covenant we drive up through the hills of the Judean Wilderness towards Jerusalem, and on south towards Bethlehem passing through the separation wall where we will spend two nights staying at a Pilgrim Hotel close to Manger Square. Dinner and overnight in Bethlehem.

DAY 6: SATURDAY, MAY 7

During the morning we will see the work of two remarkable Christian institutions endeavoring to bring something of the abundant life promised in the gospel to those living under the restrictions of the Occupation. We hope to visit the St Vincent Creche/Orphanage - the only facility of its kind in the West Bank, offering Christian love and compassion to over forty abandoned babies and small children and Bethlehem University which is partially funded by the Vatican and other donors. We will break for lunch here after our visit. In the afternoon we will visit the Church of the Nativity, the oldest church in Christendom, and the nearby Shepherds Fields at Beit Sahour. Return to our hotel behind Manger Square in good time to relax before dinner. Overnight stay in Bethlehem.

DAY 7: SUNDAY, MAY 8

This morning we leave Bethlehem after breakfast and drive over to East Jerusalem to attend the principal Sunday Eucharist at St George's Episcopal Cathedral. After coffee with members of the congregation we will visit the Western Wall, before driving over to West Jerusalem to visit the synagogue at the Hadassah Hospital in Ein Karem. The synagogue is famous for its windows by Marc Chagall depicting the twelve sons of Jacob with vivid colors and images. Ein Karem is also believed to have been the home of Zechariah and Elizabeth and thus the site of the birth of John the Baptist and of the encounter between Elizabeth and Mary, when Magnificat was first sung. We will bring our day to a close by visiting the church which commemorates this famous meeting, and having the chance to sing Magnificat ourselves on this Sunday evening. Finally we come to our hotel, located in the Christian Quarter of the Old City of Jerusalem, which will be our home for the final nights of our pilgrimage.

DAY 8: MONDAY, MAY 9

Our day starts with a visit to The Princess Basma Centre for Children with Disabilities, a charitable institution entrusted under the Anglican Episcopal church. After this we walk down the slopes of the Mount of Olives that will take us from Bethphage (the start of the traditional Palm Sunday route) to the churches of Pater Noster and Dominus Fleuit, and finally to the Church of All Nations, in the Garden of Gethsemane. After a break for lunch we ascend Mount Zion to visit sites associated with the Last Supper, the Day of Pentecost and the falling asleep of Mary, before finishing our day at the church of St Peter in Gallicantu built at the top of an ancient set of steps which leads up from the City of David to what is believed to have been the residence of the High Priest. Many believe that Jesus himself was led up these steps to His trial by the authorities after His arrest. Here we recall not only Jesus' incarceration over the last night of his life, but also Peter's faithless threefold denial of Jesus. denial of Jesus.

DAY 9: TUESDAY, MAY 10

We will spend today in the Jordan Valley, starting with a visit to Masada, the site of one of Herod's great fortified palaces, and the place of the mass suicide of the Sicari rebels in 74AD at the end of a siege by the Roman army. After lunch we will visit Qumran, the site where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered by a Bedouin shepherd in 1947, before having the opportunity to bathe in the unique mineral laden waters of the Dead Sea. Coming back to Jerusalem, we will visit the Israel Museum to see a model of First Century Jerusalem, and the Shrine of the Book exhibition that features the Dead Sea Scrolls.

DAY 10: WEDNESDAY, MAY 11

We make an early start this morning in the hope of being allowed to ascend the Temple Mount, to get a close look at the Dome of the Rock and the Al Aqsa Mosque. From here we come to St Anne's church and the pools of Bethesda, after which we make our way to the Ecce Homo Convent, and after celebrating the Eucharist, we will make our way prayerfully along the Via Dolorosa, until we come to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, and remember Christ's death and burial. After a break for lunch there will be an optional visit to Yad Vashem, the Holocaust Memorial in west Jerusalem.

DAY 11: THURSDAY, MAY 12

On this, our final day in the Holy Land, we will visit one of the sites associated with biblical Emmaus, the village of Abu Ghosh, where we will pray together as pilgrims one last time. From here, like the two disciples who encountered the risen Christ, we will return to Jerusalem, to enjoy the rest of the day as free time to revisit favorite sites, pray, shop or just rest. Lunch will not be provided today. In the late afternoon we leave Jerusalem to visit Jaffa, set on the shores of the Mediterranean. Here we will have a final dinner before heading to the airport for our late night flight back to the United States.

DAY 12: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25

We land in Newark in the early morning, and after clearing immigration and Customs formalities catch our connecting flight back to Omaha, where we land mid-morning, ready to share with our family and friends all we have seen and learned in the Land of the Holy One.

Please note this complex touring program may be subject to minor local amendments.

HEALTH & FITNESS:

This pilgrimage involves a considerable amount of walking, although it is not a hiking expedition. Pilgrims will need to be able to get on and off a bus frequently, and, in the course of a day, walk one or two miles at a gentle pace, sometimes on uneven or hilly ground. Much of the terrain is not suited to the use of wheelchairs or walkers, and people who depend on these for mobility would find their ability to participate fully in the pilgrimage extremely limited. By signing up for this pilgrimage, you are agreeing that you have noted this advice, and that you are fit enough to undertake the trip.

In this instance, a separate invoice will be issued 14 days before departure with the single room supplement fee.

RESPONSIBILITY

Lightline Pilgrimages takes reasonable care in selecting competent, reliable and qualified suppliers based on information that is reasonably available to us. That said, Lightline Pilgrimages acts only as an intermediary for the various independent suppliers that provide lodging, meals, transportation, sightseeing, activities or other goods and services connected with your tour (“Supplier” or “Suppliers”). You acknowledge that you are aware and clearly understand that these Suppliers are independent contractors, are not managed by Lightline Pilgrimages, and are not agents or employees of Lightline Pilgrimages. A Supplier’s services are subject to the Supplier’s own terms and conditions and any applicable local laws, regulations and treaties of the relevant country. Any flight scheduled or otherwise forming part of the arrangements will be subject to the Conditions of Carriage of that airline. Some of these will limit or even exclude liability and conditions are the subject of international agreements between countries. Lightline Pilgrimages will not provide any refund for a Supplier’s delay, cancellation, overbooking, or strike.

TRIP MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

Unless specified otherwise, the minimum number of persons required for most tours to take place is 15 persons. If this is not achieved, we reserve the right to continue to operate (with Driver/Guide), or to cancel the tour no later than 4 weeks prior to departure. If we cancel under this paragraph, all monies paid to us for the tour will be refunded.

CANCELLATION POLICY

To cancel your booking, you must submit your request to us in writing by email at info@lightlinena.com with “Cancellation” in the subject line or postal mail at Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC, 1829 North Cleveland Ave, Unit B, Chicago, IL 60614-8015 USA. Cancellation fees will be applied per person according to the following schedule, based on the date we receive your written notification, not when you send it or notify us by phone:

PERIOD	CANCELLATION FEE (% of total trip cost)
Over 90 days before departure	Deposit Only
90- 45 days before departure	75%
Within 45 days of departure	100%

NOTE: If the reason for cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, consult with your insurance provider to see if you can reclaim these cancellation charges, less excesses and insurance premiums.

No refunds will be provided for any unused portion of a tour once the tour begins, including if you leave a tour for any reason, miss the tour's departure date, or have to be removed from a tour. There are no exceptions to this cancellation policy, including for reasons related to weather, terrorism, civil strife, personal, family or medical emergencies or any other circumstances beyond our control. For this reason, we strongly recommend that all Participants purchase trip cancellation and interruption insurance prior to travel.

CHANGES WE MAKE AND FLEXIBILITY

We plan our trips many months and sometimes years in advance. Sometimes, although not often, we have to change or cancel portions of the itinerary, lodging and other details of a trip. As such, we cannot guarantee that every part of the itinerary advertised in the brochure will be followed or that the duration of each visit along the route will be as advised. While we strive to operate all tours as advertised, we reserve the right to modify or cancel any flight, schedule, accommodation or other details of your trip at any time and without notice except as provided in this section. Most changes are minor, but where they are significant, we will inform you of an existing change when you book, or if you have already booked, prior to your departure provided that we have sufficient time to do so. You then have the following choices:

- a. Accept the changed arrangements as notified to you,
- b. Purchase another available tour from us, or
- c. Cancel your tour. If in these particular circumstances you cancel, all monies paid to us will be refund to you less any non-refundable deposits.

In the event that the significant change is our cancellation of the tour, we will return to you all money that you have paid us or will offer you an alternative available tour to purchase of comparable standard.

CHANGE REQUESTS THAT YOU MAKE

To change your booking, you must submit your request to us in writing by email at info@lightlina.com with "Change Request" in the subject line or postal mail at Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC, 1829 North Cleveland Ave, Unit B, Chicago, IL 60614-8015 USA. If you request to change your tour dates or alter your itinerary after we confirm your booking, we will do our best to accommodate your request. If we are able to make such changes, a change fee will be imposed. The type and scope of change dictates the amount of the change fee. Our outside suppliers, including hotels, often impose additional fees or penalties for changes and cancellations. These are included in the change fee and can be substantial.

We will forward any alteration that you request after your tour has commenced to our independent suppliers. We will Work with our suppliers to try and accommodate reasonable requests but cannot guarantee that any changes will be possible after your tour has commenced. Changes while a tour is in progress can cause severe complications and are often not possible.

In the event you request a change, you will be liable for any cancellation charges and change fees that may be levied for the booking of revised arrangements and for all costs associated with the arrangements themselves

FORCE MAJEURE

Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC will not be deemed in breach of this agreement or otherwise liable to you, by reason of delay in performance or nonperformance of any of its obligations under this agreement to the extent that any such delay or nonperformance is due to any Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" means any circumstances beyond our reasonable control, including without limitation acts of God, terrorist activities, insurrection, explosion, flood, tempest, forceful wind, fire or accident, war or threat of war declared or undeclared, sabotage, civil disturbance, labor strikes, requisition, sickness, quarantine, government intervention, weather conditions, and unforeseen circumstances. If we and any of our suppliers are affected by Force Majeure, we and our suppliers shall be entitled to, and may in our sole discretion, vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the tour. Regarding civil unrest, once we have investigated the prevailing situation, as we deem fit, it shall remain in our sole and absolute discretion whether to proceed with the tour.

TRIP PRICE ADJUSTMENTS

The prices quoted for these tours are based on known costs and exchange rates when tours are planned. We reserve the right to levy a surcharge in the event of any material variation in such costs and rates such as transportation costs and fuel; dues, taxes or fees; or exchange rates applied to particular purchases. Even in such cases, we will absorb an amount equivalent to 2% of the tour price (excluding insurance premiums and any amendment charges). Only amounts in excess of this 2% will be surcharged. If this means paying more than 10% of the tour price, you will be entitled to cancel the tour with a full refund of all monies paid. Should you decide to cancel because of this, you must do so within 14 days from the issue date printed on the invoice that contains the surcharge, otherwise your cancellation will be subject to our cancellation policy and fees. Since we have to absorb increased costs equivalent to 2% of the tour price, there will be no reduction in the price of the tour in the event of a favorable variation in costs or exchange rates. Prices will not be increased within 14 days of departure.

LOST/DAMAGED LUGGAGE

You are responsible for your baggage and personal effects throughout the tour. It is important that you keep track of your belongings while traveling just as you would at home. All costs incurred for lost, misplaced, damaged or delayed baggage are at the owner's expense. Any valuable items should be insured accordingly.

NO REFUNDS FOR PERSONAL EXPENSES

You will not be reimbursed for any personal expenses such as airfare, hotel or other travel expenses due to changes in itineraries or tour cancellations.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

If you have a complaint during your tour, you must promptly report it to either your tour leader or our local representative, so that action can be taken to remedy the problem. Failure to do so while you are on the tour will extinguish or reduce your ability to claim any compensation from Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC, in the event that prompt reporting would have allowed us to fully or partially resolve the complaint at that time. Further, if you attempt to address the issue on your own without using this notice procedure, you assume responsibility for any added costs you may incur and forfeit and potential refunds. If you are not satisfied after using this notice procedure, you must submit your complaint in writing to us within 30 days of the tour's end date. Any complaints received after this date will not be accepted.

PASSPORTS AND VISAS

You are responsible for ensuring that all necessary travel documents are valid and effective and in your possession for the entire tour. Passports are required for all citizens traveling abroad and should be valid for at least seven (7) months after your date of return. It is important that the first name and surname on the air ticket matches those on the passport, otherwise the passenger may not be able to travel and any applicable travel insurance may be ineffective. We suggest you apply for or renew a passport early. Other required documents may include visas, permits, and vaccination certificates. You assume complete and full responsibility for checking and verifying any and all passport, visa, vaccination, or other entry requirements. You are also solely responsible for any adverse consequences resulting from incomplete or defective documentation.

Holders of passports other than U.S., British or Irish should contact Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC for advice on whether or not a Visa is required. Other nationals should ensure they comply with formalities.

For information concerning possible dangers at an international destination, contact the government office in your country that is responsible for issuing travel advisories. In the U.S., contact the Travel Advisory Section of the U.S. State Department, 1-888-407-4747, <http://www.travel.state.gov/>. U.S. citizens may register for the U.S. government's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program, a free service, at <https://step.state.gov/step/>.

HEALTH & FITNESS:

This pilgrimage involves a considerable amount of walking, although it is not a hiking expedition. Pilgrims will need to be able to get on and off a bus frequently, and, in the course of a day, walk one or two miles at a gentle pace, sometimes on uneven or hilly ground. Much of the terrain is not suited to the use of wheelchairs or walkers, and people who depend on these for mobility would find their ability to participate fully in the pilgrimage extremely limited. By signing up for this pilgrimage, you are agreeing that you have noted this advice, and that you are fit enough to undertake the trip.
