Dear Future Pilgrims!,

In June I led my 9th pilgrimage to the Holy Land. I will be back in the land of the Holy One this October in my capacity as Chair of the American Friends of the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem for our In-country board meeting and tour. This January 2023 pilgrimage will be my 10th, and my last, as the Bishop of Olympia. I would love to have any of you, who have always wanted to join us, to do so!

Our Christian tradition holds dear the practice of making pilgrimages as holy experiences of learning, conversion and transformation, and none is more significant than walking the paths of Jesus.

The pilgrimages I have led to the Holy Land have shaped my ministry and my understanding of what it means to follow Christ. I am excited to offer this opportunity to the diocese, and beyond, to journey with me next January, and hope that you may be able to join me in this next journey with Christ to these holy places.

This is a pilgrimage, purposely designed to be different than a tour or vacation; a pilgrimage offers a very particular opportunity to engage our sacred Scriptures contextually, and to learn more about the foundational stories of our faith. We also will engage people who call this special place home while exploring the realities of the Palestinian/Israeli conflict. We will worship with our sisters and brothers in Christ in local Episcopal churches, and we will celebrate the Eucharist at holy sites that bear witness to Jesus' ministry in those same places. Additionally, this year we are offering some additional sites in Jordan including Petra, a most amazing place that truly is one of the seven wonders of the world.

To the first disciples in Galilee who were curious, or even longing for something more in their lives, Jesus says, "Come and see," and we receive the same invitation even today, as followers of Christ. I invite you to journey with us and to "come and see".

+ Greg

Itinerary

DAY 1: MONDAY, JANUARY 16

We meet late morning at Sea-Tac Airport to fly to Israel via Newark. Our international flight departs late at night, and we hope to be able to sleep well before our landing in Israel the next day.

DAY 2: TUESDAY, JANUARY 17

We land in Tel Aviv the following afternoon, where we will be met by our guide and driver, who will take us to our beautiful pilgrim guest house on the north shore of the Sea of Galilee, which will be our home for the next three nights.

DAY 3: WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18

Our morning begins with a visit to the town in which the Good News begun – Nazareth, where Mary met the archangel Gabriel. We will celebrate the Eucharist in the Episcopal parish, and see its work ‘made flesh’ as we learn from the Rector about his ministry there. After a break for lunch, we will stop at Cana in Galilee, where Jesus performed his first ‘sign’, before closing our day at Mount Tabor, believed by many to be the site of the Transfiguration. Return to our lakeside hotel in good time to freshen up before dinner. Overnight stay by the Sea of Galilee.

DAY 4: THURSDAY, JANUARY 19

Today we will devote ourselves to the events of Jesus’ ministry of healing and teaching around the home he chose in Capernaum, on the Sea of Galilee. We will visit Capernaum itself, as well as sites associated with the Beatitudes, the commissioning of Peter, and the feeding of the Five Thousand. We will go out in a boat on the lake, and we will visit the newly-excavated First Century synagogue in Magdala, the home town of ‘the apostle to the apostles’, Mary Magdalene.

DAY 5: FRIDAY, JANUARY 20

Leaving the beauty and tranquility of the Galilee, we will journey through the heart of the West Bank to the major Palestinian city of Nablus. We will see the work of St Luke's Episcopal Hospital, providing significant specialist medical care in the heart of the city, and visit Jacob's Well, which was already a place of pilgrimage in the time of Jesus. After lunch we continue our journey south, stopping at the River Jordan to renew our Baptismal Covenant, before coming to the 'little town' of Bethlehem, situated behind the 27 foot high Separation Wall, where we will sleep for the next two nights.

DAY 6: SATURDAY, JANUARY 21

Today we will discover more insights into the story and the implications of the Incarnation, visiting the sites associated with the birth of Jesus and of the shepherds who came to greet him. We will also visit the St Vincent Creche where we can see love expressed in action at what is the only Christian orphanage in the Palestinian territories, and learn of its vital ministry for babies born in complex circumstances in today's world.

DAY 7: SUNDAY, JANUARY 22

Leaving Bethlehem after breakfast, we come to Jerusalem and join the congregation at St. George's Episcopal Cathedral in East Jerusalem for Sunday worship. After the service we hope to have some time to greet the Archbishop or Dean and our sister and brother Episcopalians in this holy city. From St George's we will visit the Western Wall and stop for lunch, before going to the Israel Museum. Here we will see a large model of Jerusalem at the time of Christ, and the Shrine of the Book, which recounts the story of the Dead Sea Scrolls. Our day will end with a visit to Ein Karem, believed to have been the home of the parents of John the Baptist, where we can sing Magnificat in the place where Mary first gave voice to these words. From here we make our way to our hotel in the Christian Quarter of the Old City, which will be our home for the remainder of our pilgrimage.

DAY 8: MONDAY, JANUARY 23

Our morning begins with a visit to the city of Hebron, one of the most important Palestinian cities in the southern West Bank. Here we will visit the Tombs of the Patriarchs, and get a clear sense of the impact of the Occupation on the life of this historic place. Returning to Bethlehem we will visit the St. Vincent Crèche. After lunch we will visit Bethany before descending the Mount of Olives visiting the churches which celebrate Jesus' triumphal entry on Palm Sunday, the giving of the Lord's Prayer and Jesus weeping over Jerusalem. Finally we come to the Garden of Gethsemane and the Church of the Agony, where we recall Jesus' betrayal and arrest.

DAY 9: TUESDAY, JANUARY 24

This morning we will pick up the story of Jesus' Passion with a visit to the churches on Mount Zion. After visiting the room of the Last Supper and the Abbey of the Dormition, we come to St. Peter in Gallicantu, believed to have been built on the site of the palace of the Jewish High Priest, where Jesus was imprisoned for the last night of his life. After lunch, we will have a tour to visit some of the nearby Israeli settlements south of Jerusalem, to encounter some of their inhabitants, and hear their perspective of some of the complex issues affecting the region today.

DAY 10: WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25

We make an early start this morning in the hope of being allowed to ascend the Temple Mount, to get a close look at the Dome of the Rock and the Al Aqsa Mosque. From here we come to St Anne's church and the pools of Bethesda, after which we make our way to the Ecce Homo Convent, and after celebrating the Eucharist, we will make our way prayerfully along the Via Dolorosa, until we come to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, and remember Christ's death and burial. After lunch, for those who wish, there will be an optional visit to the Yad Vashem Holocaust Memorial.

DAY 11: THURSDAY, JANUARY 26

Our final morning in the Holy Land starts with a visit to one of the sites associated with the story of the walk to Emmaus, where we will celebrated a final Eucharist together. After returning to Jerusalem, those who are extending their pilgrimage to visit Jordan will depart for the border crossing. Those returning home to the USA will have a free afternoon, until it is time to depart for a final dinner by the Mediterranean in Jaffa, and then the transfer to the airport for the late night flight home.

DAY 12: FRIDAY, JANUARY 27

Landing in the early morning at Newark, we clear US Customs formalities before catching our connecting flight onwards to Seattle, where we land mid morning, ready to share with our family and friends all we have seen and learned in the Land of the Holy One.

Please note this complex touring program may be subject to minor local amendments.

Jordan Extension

JANUARY 26-31, 2023

DAY 11: THURSDAY, JANUARY 26 After bidding goodbye to our fellow pilgrims returning to the United States, we leave Jerusalem for Jericho, where we will have lunch before crossing the border into the kingdom of Jordan over the Allenby Bridge. When we have cleared immigration and customs formalities, we will make our way to the town of Madaba and visit St George's church, which contains the famous 6th-century mosaic map depicting Jerusalem as being the center of the world. From here we make the short drive to Mount Nebo, where we remember how Moses was allowed to gaze across the river to see, but not enter, the Promised Land. Finally we come to our hotel at the Dead Sea, to be our home for the next two nights.

DAY 12: FRIDAY, JANUARY 27 Our morning starts with a visit to the Holy Land Institute for the Deaf in the city of Salt, slightly north of Amman. This remarkable institution of the Episcopal diocese provides education to both deaf and deaf-blind children in the region, and is a place of deep love and compassion. After this visit we will drive on to Jerash, a breathtaking Roman ruin, and explore the remains of this once prosperous city that was part of the Decapolis in Jesus' lifetime. After lunch and a thorough guided tour of Jerash we return to our hotel at the Dead Sea and enjoy its facilities before having our dinner together.

DAY 13: SATURDAY, JANUARY 28 Leaving our hotel after breakfast, we first visit the Jordanian side of the Baptismal Site on the River Jordan, before beginning our journey south to Petra. We will break for lunch by the medieval castle in Kerak, and then continue onwards to Petra, arriving in time for dinner

DAY 14: SUNDAY, JANUARY 29 We will rise early to celebrate a Sunday Eucharist together, before having a full day to explore the unique archaeological site of Petra – the 'rose red city half as old as time'. The morning will be filled with a guided tour that gently takes us down the Siq to get the famous first view of the Treasury, before continuing to explore the valley floor, filled with the ruins of this once great Nabatean city. After lunch, we have free time to explore on our own, and make our own way back to our hotel in time to freshen up and relax before dinner.

DAY 15: MONDAY, JANUARY 30 After breakfast, we retrace our steps back north towards Amman, stopping to visit the Schneller School run by the Episcopal Diocese, which serves around 270 impoverished children and their families. After a break for lunch, we recross the Allenby Bridge, and will enjoy a visit to Qumran, where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered, before journeying west to the Mediterranean. We will have a final dinner by the Mediterranean in Jaffa, and then the transfer to the airport for the late night flight home.

DAY 16: TUESDAY, JANUARY 31 Landing in the early morning at Newark, we clear US Customs formalities before catching our connecting flight onwards to Seattle, where we land mid morning, ready to share with our family and friends all we have seen and learned in the lands of the Bible.

TRIP MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

Unless specified otherwise, the minimum number of persons required for most tours to take place is 15 persons. NOTE: If the reason for cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, consult with your insurance provider to see if you can reclaim these cancellation charges, less excesses and insurance premiums.

No refunds will be provided for any unused portion of a tour once the tour begins, including if you leave a tour for any reason, miss the tour's departure date, or have to be removed from a tour. There are no exceptions to this cancellation policy, including for reasons related to weather, terrorism, civil strife, personal, family or medical emergencies or any other circumstances beyond our control. For this reason, we strongly recommend that all Participants purchase trip cancellation and interruption insurance prior to travel.

CHANGES WE MAKE AND FLEXIBILITY

We plan our trips many months and sometimes years in advance. Sometimes, although not often, we have to change or cancel portions of the itinerary, lodging and other details of a trip. As such, we cannot guarantee that every part of the itinerary advertised in the brochure will be followed or that the duration of each visit along the route will be as advised. While we strive to operate all tours as advertised, we reserve the right to modify or cancel any flight, schedule, accommodation or other details of your trip at any time and without notice except as provided in this section. Most changes are minor, but where they are significant, we will inform you of an existing change when you book, or if you have already booked, prior to your departure provided that we have sufficient time to do so. You then have the following choices:

- a. Accept the changed arrangements as notified to you,
- b. Purchase another available tour from us, or
- c. Cancel your tour. If in these particular circumstances you cancel, all monies paid to us will be refund to you less any non-refundable deposits.

In the event that the significant change is our cancellation of the tour, we will return to you all money that you have paid us or will offer you an alternative available tour to purchase of comparable standard.

CHANGE REQUESTS THAT YOU MAKE

To change your booking, you must submit your request to us in writing by email at info@lightlina.com with "Change Request" in the subject line or postal mail at Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC, 1829 North Cleveland Ave, Unit B, Chicago, IL 60614-8015 USA. If you request to change your tour dates or alter your itinerary after we confirm your booking, we will do our best to accommodate your request. If we are able to make such changes, a change fee will be imposed. The type and scope of change dictates the amount of the change fee. Our outside suppliers, including hotels, often impose additional fees or penalties for changes and cancellations. These are included in the change fee and can be substantial.

We will forward any alteration that you request after your tour has commenced to our independent suppliers. We will Work with our suppliers to try and accommodate reasonable requests but cannot guarantee that any changes will be possible after your tour has commenced. Changes while a tour is in progress can cause severe complications and are often not possible.

In the event you request a change, you will be liable for any cancellation charges and change fees that may be levied for the booking of revised arrangements and for all costs associated with the arrangements themselves

FORCE MAJEURE

Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC will not be deemed in breach of this agreement or otherwise liable to you, by reason of delay in performance or nonperformance of any of its obligations under this agreement to the extent that any such delay or nonperformance is due to any Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" means any circumstances beyond our reasonable control, including without limitation acts of God, terrorist activities, insurrection, explosion, flood, tempest, forceful wind, fire or accident, war or threat of war declared or undeclared, sabotage, civil disturbance, labor strikes, requisition, sickness, quarantine, government intervention, weather conditions, and unforeseen circumstances. If we and any of our suppliers are affected by Force Majeure, we and our suppliers shall be entitled to, and may in our sole discretion, vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the tour. Regarding civil unrest, once we have investigated the prevailing situation, as we deem fit, it shall remain in our sole and absolute discretion whether to proceed with the tour.

TRIP PRICE ADJUSTMENTS

The prices quoted for these tours are based on known costs and exchange rates when tours are planned. We reserve the right to levy a surcharge in the event of any material variation in such costs and rates such as transportation costs and fuel; dues, taxes or fees; or exchange rates applied to particular purchases. Even in such cases, we will absorb an amount equivalent to 2% of the tour price (excluding insurance premiums and any amendment charges). Only amounts in excess of this 2% will be surcharged. If this means paying more than 10% of the tour price, you will be entitled to cancel the tour with a full refund of all monies paid. Should you decide to cancel because of this, you must do so within 14 days from the issue date printed on the invoice that contains the surcharge, otherwise your cancellation will be subject to our cancellation policy and fees. Since we have to absorb increased costs equivalent to 2% of the tour price, there will be no reduction in the price of the tour in the event of a favorable variation in costs or exchange rates. Prices will not be increased within 14 days of departure.

LOST/DAMAGED LUGGAGE

You are responsible for your baggage and personal effects throughout the tour. It is important that you keep track of your belongings while traveling just as you would at home. All costs incurred for lost, misplaced, damaged or delayed baggage are at the owner's expense. Any valuable items should be insured accordingly.

NO REFUNDS FOR PERSONAL EXPENSES

You will not be reimbursed for any personal expenses such as airfare, hotel or other travel expenses due to changes in itineraries or tour cancellations.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

If you have a complaint during your tour, you must promptly report it to either your tour leader or our local representative, so that action can be taken to remedy the problem. Failure to do so while you are on the tour will extinguish or reduce your ability to claim any compensation from Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC, in the event that prompt reporting would have allowed us to fully or partially resolve the complaint at that time. Further, if you attempt to address the issue on your own without using this notice procedure, you assume responsibility for any added costs you may incur and forfeit and potential refunds. If you are not satisfied after using this notice procedure, you must submit your complaint in writing to us within 30 days of the tour's end date. Any complaints received after this date will not be accepted.

PASSPORTS AND VISAS

You are responsible for ensuring that all necessary travel documents are valid and effective and in your possession for the entire tour. Passports are required for all citizens traveling abroad and should be valid for at least seven (7) months after your date of return. It is important that the first name and surname on the air ticket matches those on the passport, otherwise the passenger may not be able to travel and any applicable travel insurance may be ineffective. We suggest you apply for or renew a passport early. Other required documents may include visas, permits, and vaccination certificates. You assume complete and full responsibility for checking and verifying any and all passport, visa, vaccination, or other entry requirements. You are also solely responsible for any adverse consequences resulting from incomplete or defective documentation.

Holders of passports other than U.S., British or Irish should contact Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC for advice on whether or not a Visa is required. Other nationals should ensure they comply with formalities.

For information concerning possible dangers at an international destination, contact the government office in your country that is responsible for issuing travel advisories. In the U.S., contact the Travel Advisory Section of the U.S. State Department, 1-888-407-4747, <http://www.travel.state.gov/>. U.S. citizens may register for the U.S. government's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program, a free service, at <https://step.state.gov/step/>.

While we may provide information or advice on matters such as visas, vaccinations, climate, clothing, baggage, and special equipment in good faith as a courtesy to you, we are not responsible for any errors or omissions as to the information provided.

The tour price does not include travel insurance. All Participants are required to have medical insurance to cover any medical problems that might arise abroad, including serious illness and repatriation costs in the event of death. We strongly recommend that you purchase comprehensive travel insurance, covering trip interruption and cancellation, baggage and other expenses which might arise as a result of loss, damage, injury, delay or inconvenience occurring to you.

The decision of the local guide or local supplier is final on all matters that may threaten the safety or interfere with the well-being of others.
