Dear friends in Christ:

We invite you to join us in learning, laughing, and worshipping together in places of deep historical and spiritual significance for the Anglican tradition. We will travel to some of England's greatest monuments and coziest nooks, hear fine choirs, view gardens in full bloom, and explore rare masterpieces of sacred art and architecture, while also following the footsteps of our tradition's greatest saints to humble places, to "kneel where prayer has been valid." We will gather with thousands for the national pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham and enjoy special visits with church leaders and art experts, with lots of time for good food and fellowship.

Father Mark, editor of THE LIVING CHURCH, prepared for the ministry in England and taught English history for six years. Amber, the director of the Living Church Institute, is a great lover of British culture and literature — and tea. We look forward to this pilgrimage with eager hearts and hope you will join us.

In Christ,

Mark and Amber

Windsor Castle

Day One, Wednesday, May 24

Meet in the evening at Dulles International Airport for overnight flight to London. Dinner served on the flight.

Day Two, Thursday, May 25

Land in London in the morning. After clearing customs and immigration, we'll make a visit to Windsor Castle, the world's oldest and largest occupied castle, founded by William the Conqueror. After a tour of the castle, and a visit to St. George's Chapel to pay our respects to Queen Elizabeth, enjoy lunch and a visit to the gardens. We continue to Cathedral Lodge in Canterbury, for a quiet dinner. Overnight in Canterbury.

Canterbury Cathedral

Day Three, Friday, May 26

We begin by visiting Canterbury Cathedral, Anglicanism's mother church, for a pilgrim Eucharist and tour of the cathedral and its precincts. Explore this charming city on your own in the afternoon: visiting historic churches or the Roman museum, or enjoying a boat trip on the river — or a little rest. Overnight in Canterbury.

Day Four, Saturday, May 27

Check out of the Cathedral Lodge after breakfast and drive to Knole, a manor house once belonging to archbishops of Canterbury that features a distinguished art collection and deer park (a favorite hunting ground of King Henry VIII). We will also visit the famed church in the village of Eye, which has a rare late medieval rood screen. Dinner and overnight stay in Norwich.

Day Five, Sunday, May 28

Worship this Day of Pentecost at Norwich Cathedral, which dates back to the 10th century and contains a wonderful series of ceiling bosses. Norwich has beautiful gardens, riverside walks, and more than 30 medieval churches, including St. St. Peter Mancroft, which contains some of England's finest medieval stained glass, and St. Julian's which was home to the anchoress-theologian known as Julian of Norwich.

Day Six, Monday, May 29

Meet Simon Cotton, a regular TLC contributor, for a tour of Salle parish church, one of England's largest and best-preserved late medieval "wool churches," said to be haunted by the ghost of Anne Boleyn. We continue to Walsingham, a medieval pilgrimage center restored by the local Anglican vicar in the 1930s. We will join thousands for the National Pilgrimage, an annual outdoor Mass in the ruins of the medieval priory followed by a procession through the village streets. Overnight in Norwich.

Walsingham

Day Seven, Tuesday, May 30

Travel across the countryside, stopping off at Little Gidding (of the T.S. Eliot poem) to celebrate the Eucharist in the tiny church where Nicholas Ferrar formed the first Anglican religious community in 1624. We continue to Olney, one of early evangelicism's spiritual centers, where John Newton and William Cowper wrote many beloved hymns, including "Amazing Grace." Overnight in Stratford upon Avon.

Day Eight, Wednesday, May 31

Depart Stratford for a visit to nearby Coventry Cathedral, famed worldwide for its ministry of reconciliation. We will visit the ruins of its medieval cathedral and the modern cathedral constructed alongside after its bombing during World War II. We return to Stratford for a free afternoon in the Bard's city. Visit one of the houses associated with Shakespeare's life, visit his grave at Holy Trinity Church, or stop for tea in one of the city's quirky cafes. After dinner, we hope to attend a performance at the Royal Shakespeare Theatre (cost not included in pilgrimage price). Overnight in Stratford upon Avon.

Coventry Cathedral

Day Nine, Thursday, June 1

Depart Stratford for a quick trip across the Cotswolds to Oxford, the fabled "city of dreaming spires," where Cranmer, Latimer, and Ridley were martyred, the Tractarians prayed and worked for renewal, and the

Oxford

Inklings captivated the imagination. We begin with visits to The Kilns (C.S. Lewis's home). The afternoon is free for exploring.

Hike across Port Meadow, punt down the River Isis, explore medieval churches and Overnight in Winchester.

Day Eleven, Saturday, June 3

Begin the day with a tour of Winchester Cathedral and an opportunity to explore England's ancient capital. Optional walk to Saint Cross Hospital, the nation's oldest almshouse (thought to be Hiram's Hospital in Trollope's The Warden), where 25 brothers still reside, wearing black and claret-colored robes. Another option is to travel in the afternoon to Hursley, where John Keble's decades of ministry became a model for generations of Tractarian clergy. Then visit the visionary frescoes of World War I artist Stanley Spencer at Sandham Memorial Chapel. Back in Winchester, share a final dinner to mark the close of our pilgrimage.

While we strive to operate all tours as advertised, we reserve the right to modify or cancel any flight, schedule, accommodation or other details of your trip at any time and without notice except as provided in this section. Most changes are minor, but where they are significant, we will inform you of an existing changes when you book, or if you have already booked, prior to your departure provided that we have sufficient time to do so. You then have the following choices:

- a. Accept the changed arrangements as notified to you,
- b. Purchase another available tour from us, or
- c. Cancel your tour. If in these particular circumstances you cancel, all monies paid to us will be refund to you less any non-refundable deposits.

If you request to change your tour dates or alter your itinerary after we confirm your booking, we will do our best to accommodate your request. If we are able to make such changes, a change fee will be imposed. The type and scope of change dictates the amount of the change fee. Our outside suppliers, including hotels, often impose additional fees or penalties for changes and cancellations. These are included in the change fee and can be substantial.

We will forward any alteration that you request after your tour has commenced to our independent suppliers. Failure to do so while you are on the tour will extinguish or reduce your ability to claim any compensation from Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC, in the event that prompt reporting would have allowed us to fully or partially resolve the complaint at that time. Further, if you attempt to address the issue on your own without using this notice procedure, you assume responsibility for any added costs you may incur and forfeit and potential refunds. If you are not satisfied after using this notice procedure, you must submit your complaint in writing to us within 30 days of the tour's end date. Other required documents may include visas, permits, and vaccination certificates. You assume complete and full responsibility for checking and verifying any and all passport, visa, vaccination, or other entry requirements. You are also solely responsible for any adverse consequences resulting from incomplete or defective documentation.

While we may provide information or advice on matters such as visas, vaccinations, climate, clothing, baggage, and special equipment in good faith as a courtesy to you, we are not responsible for any errors or omissions as to the information provided.

TRAVEL INSURANCE/PROTECTION

The tour price does not include travel insurance. All Participants are required to have medical insurance to cover any medical problems that might rise abroad, including serious illness and repatriation costs in the event of death. We strongly recommend that you purchase comprehensive travel insurance, covering trip interruption and cancellation, baggage and other expenses which might arise as a result of loss, damage, injury, delay or inconvenience occurring to you.

PRE-DEPARTURE DOCUMENTATION

It is important that you carefully read all trip-related documents that you receive from us as soon as you receive them. It is your responsibility to contact us if any information is incorrect. We cannot accept any liability if you do not notify us of any inaccuracies within seven (7) days of receipt. All Participants must sign this agreement and our release and waiver of liability and assumption of risk and indemnity agreement in order to participate in our trips. Both parents and/or the legal guardian must sign for minor Participants under 18 years of age. If you fail to submit these and other necessary documentation prior to departure, we reserve the right to treat your booking as cancelled by you and impose the cancellation fees described in this agreement.
